Looking Ahead: Progress, Priorities and Perspective

With the bulk of the renewal season now behind us, the Board is turning its attention to the priorities shaping the year ahead. In this issue, we look back at the progress made during FY2026 and highlight the work underway to strengthen Nevada's regulatory framework.

A key focus is the Board's ongoing crosswalk review of the Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy (FSBPT) Model Practice Act. This section-by-section analysis is designed to identify gaps, modernize outdated provisions, and evaluate opportunities to align Nevada law with current regulatory best practices. The review spans critical areas including ethical practice, term protection, PTA and tech supervision, and Compact participation, among others.

Board members and staff also participated in the 2026 FSBPT Regulatory Workshop and Leadership Issues Forum, where they gained valuable perspective on national trends and emerging regulatory issues affecting the profession. Read on to explore the progress, priorities, and forward-looking work guiding the Board as we continue to advance effective regulation and public protection.

NEVADA HEALTHCARE WORKFORCE SURVEY

YOUR VOICE. OUR FUTURE. BETTER CARE FOR NEVADANS.

The survey is complete—thank you to everyone who shared your insights. Your feedback provides valuable insight into Nevada's physical therapy workforce and helps guide informed decisions that support our profession and the communities we serve.

WHAT WE LEARNED

WORKFORCE CAPACITY

Helps measure the size and distribution of the PT and PTA workforce across Nevada.

Your data helps identify workforce strengths and areas of need.

PRACTICE SETTINGS

Provides insight into where you practice and the services and settings that best serve patients.

Your input helps us understand practice trends across the state.

PATIENT ACCESS

Captures data on payer mix (Medicaid, Medicare, and Sliding Fee Scale) and barriers to care.

Your responses help us identify barriers to care and support better access for Nevadans.

FUTURE PLANNING

Informs workforce needs, retirement trends, and future education and recruitment efforts.

Your feedback informs policies that prepare for Nevada's future.

POWERED BY NATIONAL STANDARDS

CROSS-PROFESSION MINIMUM DATA SET (CPMDS)

Access to vital healthcare services is dependent upon a sufficient healthcare workforce. FSBPT supports the development of the CPMDS, a set of core questions for collecting data elements widely considered the "minimum necessary" for health workforce planning.

The intent of the CPMDS is to serve as a framework for standardizing data collection across various health professions for the purpose of supporting within and between profession comparisons and analyses.

FSBPT CENSUS OF LICENSED PHYSICAL THERAPISTS AND PHYSICAL THERAPIST ASSISTANTS IN THE UNITED STATES

FSBPT's Census provides the most comprehensive national data on the number of active PT and PTA licenses across the United States.

This report is the initial attempt to provide information about the number of active physical therapy licenses in the United States.

HELP SHAPE WHAT COMES NEXT

Thank you for staying engaged as we work together to strengthen the future of physical therapy in Nevada. Your dedication, insight, and commitment to quality care are valued and essential to this effort.

As the Nevada Physical Therapy Board continues its modernization work through the Model Practice Act crosswalk review, we invite licensees to help inform this important process. This is an opportunity to share perspectives on changes that better reflect current practice, strengthen regulation, and support the future of the profession in Nevada.

We recognize that those engaged in daily practice are often best positioned to identify where greater clarity and modernization are needed.

The Board remains focused on key areas such as term protection, PTA and technician supervision, and ethical practice, including informed consent.

We also continue to receive valuable feedback on scope of practice, administrative burden, practice efficiency, documentation, billing and reimbursement, and provisions that may no longer align with current practice.

Charles D. Harvey, MPA
Executive Director

A strong Practice Act is essential to supporting safe, effective, and responsive physical therapy in Nevada.

Input from other state boards reflects similar areas of focus, including ownership of physical therapy practices, advertising and marketing standards, and delegation and technician rules. Physical therapists frequently seek clearer guidance on delegation, supervision levels, documentation responsibilities, and distinctions between PTA and technician roles. Physical therapist assistants often identify supervision requirements and utilization as areas where modernization could provide greater clarity and better support practice.

I encourage you to share your perspective by submitting written comments, attending Board meetings, or contacting me directly. You can also follow updates through the Board's website and social media channels.

Your voice is an important part of this process. Together, we can continue shaping a Practice Act that reflects current practice and supports a strong, effective future for physical therapy in Nevada.

Licensees may consult with an attorney at any stage of the process, including before responding to the Board.

UNDERSTANDING THE COMPLAINT PROCESS

The complaint process is designed to ensure that concerns are reviewed carefully and fairly in support of the Board's public protection mission. The filing of a complaint does not mean that a violation has occurred; it indicates only that the Board is evaluating the information to determine whether further action is warranted.

Upon receipt, each complaint is reviewed to confirm that it alleges a potential violation of the Practice Act. If jurisdiction is established, notice is provided to both the complainant and the licensee, and an investigator is assigned to gather relevant facts. This process may include interviews with involved parties and witnesses, as well as a review of records and supporting documentation.

Licensees are required to cooperate fully and respond in a timely manner, as set forth in NAC 640.550(9).

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Board evaluates the findings to determine the appropriate course of action. Some matters are dismissed, while others may result in disciplinary action, including resolution through a stipulated settlement agreement or a formal hearing, depending on the circumstances and evidence.

Licensees should also be aware of scam calls involving false claims of Board investigations. If you are the subject of an investigation, the Board will provide formal notice by U.S. mail and email. The Board, or anyone acting on its behalf, will never request payment by phone. If you receive a suspicious call, terminate the conversation and verify the matter by contacting the Board office directly at (702) 876-5535.

RECURRING ISSUES REPORTED TO THE BOARD

HEALTHY PRACTICE / SAFER CARE

A Healthy Practice Starts with you!

Clinicians are doing vital work in a time of increasing demands, and that commitment deserves meaningful support. Heavier caseloads, rapid technological change, tighter budgets, and expanding documentation requirements can create real strain. No one should have to carry those pressures alone.

The Board encourages clinicians to prioritize their well-being as part of a strong and sustainable practice. Supporting clinicians contributes to healthier workplaces, stronger teams, and safer care for every patient.

The Healthy Practice Resource is a free, confidential, evidence-based self-assessment designed to help clinicians reflect, reset, and take action.

Developed in collaboration with national partners, the resource includes ten brief modules, each taking approximately 8 to 10 minutes to complete. These modules address emotional, mental, social, financial, and physical well-being, as well as workplace factors such as organizational climate, role support, benefits, and compassion. Clinicians can select the modules most relevant to their needs and receive immediate, practical feedback. No personally identifiable data is collected.

Why this matters:

- Even small, intentional reflection can help reduce the risk of burnout and support continued engagement in patient care.
- When clinicians are supported, care delivery is more consistent, team performance improves, and workforce stability is strengthened.

How to make it work for you:

- To get started, consider completing one module this week and identifying a single action to implement over the next 30 days.
- Engaging a colleague in the process can also foster meaningful dialogue and shared ideas for improving the work environment. The results can serve as a foundation for constructive conversations around workload, support, and team well-being.

Continuing Education Note: The Board allows up to five hours of self-paced learning to count toward license renewal. This resource may be used as part of that allowance.

Professional Development and Board Engagement

The NVPTB has a longstanding tradition of contributing to the advancement of physical therapy regulation through active participation on FSBPT committees and task forces. Board representatives have contributed to national initiatives involving licensure, disciplinary data, finance, model board action guidelines, and regulatory policy, helping shape best practices and strengthen the regulatory framework for the profession.

NVPTB was also well represented at the recent FSBPT Leadership Issues Forum, reflecting the Board's continued commitment to professional excellence and public service. The active engagement of professional members, public members, and staff underscores the importance of diverse perspectives in advancing communication, leadership, and regulatory understanding.

The Importance of Public Service on Boards

At the 2026 LIF Conference, NVPTB Secretary/Treasurer Anita Wagner (seated far left) joined other public members for a discussion on the value of public representation in regulatory decision-making and the shared responsibility of board members to promote accountability, fairness, and public confidence in the profession.
